At the request of a large number of friends and scholars of my father, I have as one of the conditions for admission. The staff and the new House of Lords are already in a state of confusion by the proposed changes.

I can not only say that it should be implemented, but this important trend I shall underline. It is, in fact, the heart of our addition to the new world.

FRIDAY, JUNE 29, 1888.

The construction of the Regina & Long Lake Railway may now be considered a certainty. The company have got the land grant and in addition a money guarantee from the Government. This was all the company wanted to insure the extension of the line to this place.
We believe that operations will commence immediately.

The appointment of Mr. Royal as Lieut. Governor of the Northwest Territories seems to be a matter of fact. Mr. Royal in assuming the gubernatorial chair brings with him many years of experience as representative of Manitoba in the Federal Government, at Ottawa. From his affable manner and long political experience, we predict for the honorable gentleman a bright reign as Lieut.-Governor of the Territories.

It is now authentically reported that His Honor Lieut.-Governor Dewdney has been appointed Minister of the Interior. While we deeply regret the loss of the Hon.
Mr. Dewdney as Lieut. Governor, we congratulate the Government upon its choice of him as successor to the late Minister of the Interior.
From his long experience as governor of the Territories; from the able manner in which he has discharged his duties, and from his valuable knowledge of the various wants of our country, no appointment could have been made so acceptable to the people of the Territories for the important folio of Minister of the Interior as the Hon. Mr. Dewdney.

The long struggle of Emperor Fredrick of Germany with the malady which afflicted him has at last ended, and death has put an end to his sufferings. That he bore up as long as he did was a matter of surprise to his physicians, who during months past have many times looked for his collapse. Brief intervals of apparent recovery would ensue, and the hearts of the people would be glad-dened by hopeful news only to be soon cast down by another near approach of death. Through his long illness the Emperor preserved a cheerfulness rarely witnessed in one who suffers as he has. His subjects held him in more than ordinary affection, and his death is to them as a personal bereavement. The death of Fredrick and the ascension of William to the throne is looked upon as initiatory of a new era in Germany's political affairs and as likely to affect all Europe. The young Emperor is impulsive and warlike, and forebodings are indulged in of a speedy climax to the war rumors which have of late from time to time troubled Europe.

The ceremony of swearing in the new Governor-General appears to have passed off in the usual satisfactory manner, and his Excellency was presented with his first address.
The City of Ottawa came to the front in good form and his Excellency replied with good taste. There is nothing in the reply or address to call for special comment. Lord Stanley is apparently favorably impressed with what he has seen of Canada and its people, and there is every reason to believe that he and Lady Stanley will find themselves quite at home in a short time.
There is not much in Rideau Hall to suggest undue luxury or extreme refinement or elegance, for as a vice-regal mansion it ranks very badly; but, fortunately, his Excellency is under no obligation to shut himself up there. The whole Dominion is before him, and the few months before winter sets in will, no doubt, be pleasantly spent in seeing what other parts of the Dominion have to offer in natural attractions and Canadian hospitality. A trip to Prince Albert and the Territories would give him a good idea of the vast and fine agricultural country he holds the vice-regal reins of.

ADDRESS.

To the Electors of Prince Albert District.

GENTLEMEN.

Having been requested by a large number of the influential farmers and others of this district, consisting of both political shades, to offer myself as a candidate for member of the Northwest Legislative Assembly. Feeling as I do the importance the agricultural class are, the general prosperity of this district and the great and just necessity of their being represented in the new Legislative Assembly by one of their number. After due consideration I have consented to allow my name to be put forward as an Independent farmer's candidate. I regret exceedingly that some have advocated that the coming election should be run on party lines, when so many questions of most vital importance to this district stand pre-eminently before us, questions upon which both political parties should stand united, and believing in the justice of the farmer's claims to one of the two representatives we shall be called upon shortly to elect for this District of Prince Albert, which I think no one can but admit. As one thoroughly acquainted with the requirements of the farming community I have decided to advance the following platform:—

1. Speedy railway communication with this District.
2. The giving of all contracts for the Mounted Police and Indian Departments to those residing within this District.
3. The granting of more liberal aid to the rural school districts.
4. More liberal allowances for the improving of roads and building of bridges in the District.
5. Substantial grants to our Agricultural Society.
6. Submission of the liquor question to the popular will of the people.
7. Recognition of the services of members of the N.W.M. Police in the same manner as were allowed the volunteers.
8. Scrip be granted to the children of natives who resided in the Territories at the time of the transfer and were born before the 15th March, 1885.
9. The adoption, by the Indian Department, of a better system of medical attendance for the Indians.

These gentlemen and electors of the district, are some of the suggestions which immediately occur to me. If, however, I have omitted anything I shall be glad to take into consideration any further suggestion which may be made to me.

Should you see fit to elect me as your representative I will to the best of my ability serve you honestly, faithfully and zealously as becomes one who has the best interests of the entire district thoroughly at heart.

I am, Gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,
WM. PLAXTON.

PAID THE PENALTY.

The McLeish Murderers Dropped into Jail.

REGINA, June 13.—Moses Racett and James Gaddy died on the scaffold at the police barracks here at 8:23 this morning for the murder of Hector McLeish at his house near Wolsley in May, 1887.

Gaddy and Racett have you anything to say before sentence of the law is carried out? asked Sheriff Benson, watch in hand.

Gaddy was dumb.

Racett answered "Yes." He continued "But I can't talk here." Then with evident difficulty, he made a disconnected statement, the most important part of which was as follows: "I am no murderer to have the rope. I didn't have a fair trial. Perhaps I would have a little longer to live, but it is not because I do not care to live. I am very glad you give me a chance to talk, because when I had my trial I had no chance to talk. I hope God will forgive the people who got me my sentence." The cap was here drawn on, and the hangman placed the nooses over the prisoner's necks. He drew each tight, while the clergymen were repeating the Lord's Prayer, and then the drop fell. Looking down, not a movement of the bodies could be seen. The drop was eight feet; the knot on Gaddy's rope had slipped around to the back of his neck, and his light-weight prevented any serious abrasion of the skin. In Racett's case, however, the rope had cut deep and blood ran profusely. His feet had to be propped to prevent decapitation, and when cut down the noose was not two inches in diameter.

Death was instantaneous, according to Dr. Dodd's report from below. Doctors Cotton and Willoughby were also present and examined the bodies, and all pronounced death instantaneous. The drop fell at 8:20, and at 8:26 the pulses had ceased. After the drop fell the priests repeated the Departure of the Soul. They had previously given Racett absolution.

Thus the murderers of Hector McLeish paid the penalty of the awful crime they committed.

SORE FROM KNEE TO ANKLE

skin entirely gone. Flesh a mass of disease. Leg diminished one-third in size. Condition hopeless. Cured by the CUTICURA Remedy.

For three years I was almost crippled with an awful sore leg from my knee down to my ankle; the skin was entirely gone, and the flesh was a mass of disease. Some Physicians pronounced it incurable. It had diminished about one-third the size of the other and I was in a hopeless condition. After trying all kinds of remedies and spending hundreds of dollars, from which I got no relief whatever, I was persuaded to try your CUTICURA REMEDY, and the result was as follows: After three days I noticed a decided change for the better, and at the end of three months was completely cured. My flesh was purified, and the bone (which had been exposed for over a year) got sound. The flesh began to grow and to day and for nearly two years past my leg is as well as ever it was, sound in every respect, and not a sign of the disease to be seen.

Terrible suffering from skin disease. I have been a terrible sufferer for years from diseases of the skin and blood, and have been obliged to shun public places by reason of my disgusting humors. Have had the best of physicians and spent hundreds of dollars but got no relief until I used the CUTICURA REMEDY, which have cured me and left my skin clear and my blood as pure as a child's.

ADDRESS.

To the Electors of the Electoral District of Prince Albert.

GENTLEMEN,—

At the request of numerous electors of all political parties, I beg again to offer myself as a candidate for your suffrages at the coming election. Among other matters which have been urged upon the Government by the late Council, in which I had the honor to be your member, I shall—if elected—continue to press upon the authorities:—

1st—The necessity of the speedy construction, by help of cash subsidies, of Railways north and south of the C.P.R., and also the construction of the Hudson Bay railway, and a traffic bridge across the Saskatchewan.

2nd—Submission of any liquor law to the vote of the people before allowing it to come into force.

3rd—Scrip to the half breed children born up to 1885.

4th—That the claims of the N. W. Mounted Police to pensions, scrip and medals be recognized in the same manner as the militia.

5th—The reconsideration of many claims still outstanding since the rebellion.

6th—The improvement of the navigation of both the north and south branches of the Saskatchewan.

7th—The survey of the old trails, and their transfer to the Territorial authorities.

8th—The reduction of duties on agricultural implements imported into the Territories.

9th—That the amount of stock kept on a homestead be taken into consideration as well as cultivation.

10th—That no charge be made for any wood used for fuel purposes by bona fide farmers and not cut for sale, and that each settler be allowed 4,000 lineal feet of building timber on free permit.

11th—That all food supplies both for the Mounted Police and Indians be purchased in the Territories without the official routine which now attends the letting of contracts, and that beef be substituted for bacon where possible.

Among new matters I shall call the attention of the Government to, I will mention:—

1st—The necessity of providing funds for the maintenance of High and Normal Schools, without infringing on the liberal allowance now given to the public schools.

2nd—That at all events a portion, if not all, of the revenue derived from fines and licenses accruing in municipalities be refunded to the municipality for local purposes.

3rd—That the presiding officer of municipalities should be ex officio a magistrate.

4th—That the Ordinances of the Territories be consolidated.

5th—That all elections, both Dominion and Territorial, should be by ballot.

6th—That the Ordinances against prairie fires and the use of poison be more strictly enforced.

7th—That increased and every possible aid be given to the construction of roads and bridges and without having recourse to direct taxation.

As your representative in the late Council, I labored under many disadvantages, being the only representative from the Saskatchewan. Still, probably had it not been for my opposition, this portion of the Territories would have been erected into a province together with the other districts, leaving you with four members in a Chamber of twenty-six, whereas we have now five in twenty-two. I am altogether in favor of Responsible Government when we can enter into the scheme on the same basis as the other districts, but I do not wish the Saskatchewan to go into any such arrangement until by the advent of railways she will be by wealth and population on a par (as she must be in a few years) with the other districts.

These, gentlemen, are the principal points I am able to bring before you in an address of this description. If you think my actions in the past warrant a continuance of your support and that my experience can be of service to you in the new Legislature—which will be a most important one—give me your votes, and remember the old adage, "That it does not pay to swap horses when crossing a stream."

I have the honor to be, gentlemen, Yours very truly,
O. E. HUGHES.
Prince Albert, June 21, 1888.

The following was handed in to us for publication and will be of interest to our readers. "In one of your late issues I noticed a reference to the death of Mr. Markley, of the South Branch. I am sure you will not take it amiss to be informed of the career of the late gentleman. During the war of 1812-15 Mr. Markley held a commission as lieutenant in the Canadian militia and served throughout that eventful war. He was present at the taking of Odensburg and was in several other battles. And so has passed away on the banks of the Saskatchewan one who, nearly four score years ago, was doing his part towards maintaining the British flag on the northern parts of this continent."

GRAND UNION LIVERY STABLE.

Opposition is the Life of Trade

A First-class Livery, Feed and Sale Stables

We would like to invite the public when in Prince Albert to give us a call. Our stables are the most central in town—next door to Queen's Hotel.

We keep the largest and best Livery and Feed Stable in town.

We have a lot of new horses and rigs—second to none west of Winnipeg—to hire on reasonable terms.

You will always find good, reliable and accommodating men night and day at our stables to attend to your wants.

All our horses are first-class livery horses; can be driven by ladies; particular care has been taken to purchase horses of that class.

You can always depend on getting the best turnout in town at the Grand Union Stables.

N.B.—We do not advertise in one paper to contradict it in another, as that constitutes a falsehood, but we keep the best Livery and Feed Stable—and at the lowest prices—in town.
